1. The meeting was called to order at 1300 hours by Chief Shears.

Meeting to discuss potential Massachusetts State Grants for Public Safety:

1. Senator Diana DiZoglio and Ms. Lauren LeBlanc arrived just after 1300 hours and we discussed the project with the Senator. She would like us to send information on the building and costs associated with the building. We discussed the filing of bond bills and earmarks to help offset the costs of the project. Chief Shears will send the information to both.
2. State Representative Leonard Mirra arrived just after 1400 hours and we continued our discussion about the building. There was talk of both the Senator and the Representative filing legislation together.
